

Music Australia Donation Form

Music Australia is the independent national voice of the music industry. Music Australia relies on a mix of funding, membership fees, sponsorship and your donations to exist. Your support is fundamental to the future of Music Australia and the work we do in the music community.

Music Australia is calling out donations to help us continue the work of our music education program Music: Count Us In (MCUI) into the future by providing more Australian children with access to free, quality music education within their schools.

Donate to Music Australia to help us continue our vital work representing Australian music.
