

COME PLAY MUSIC AT LIFEHOUSE!

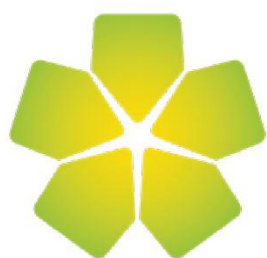

Are you a musician keen to be involved in a meaningful and rewarding music program?

Chris O'Brien Lifehouse is looking for volunteers to join our music in health program and provide high quality live music in locations throughout the hospital.

The performances aim to positively enhance the atmosphere and experience for our patients, families, visitors and staff.

We are interested in musical diversity, eclectic genres and instruments and encourage people from all musical backgrounds to participate – individual or ensemble.

To find out more, email MusicTherapy@lh.org.au

Chris O'Brien
Lifehouse

To become a regular music volunteer there will be an audition process and onsite training